

Program for Men's Health Week in Denmark (MHW)

Focus: Male sensitive communication in health settings

June 11:

Radio programme of one and half an hour on Danish Broadcasting Cooperation with the president of Mens' Health Society

Signing of the Vienna Declaration by the president of the Danish Football Association (still to be confirmed)

Opening event with representatives from Danish Nurses Organisation, the biggest Danish workers' union, 3F, and speeches on health promotion in work places, presentation of Mern's Health Prize-winner 2007 etc.

June 12:

Conference on Men's Health held by The Danish Confederation of Trade Unions, LO

Launching of the first Men's Health educational programme for health professionals, called: Training in Communication and Dialog with Men. The education will run through the week in three cities – Copenhagen, Aarhus and Kolding – and include subjects as working with:

- Men's medical health
- Men's health psychology
- Men and sexuality
- Men and rehabilitation
- Men af overweight
- Men's mental health
- Men as fathers
- Older men and suicide

June 13

Second day of the Training in Communication and Dialog with Men programme

June 14

Third day of the Training in Communication and Dialog with Men programme

June 16

Academic seminar on Men's Health

Svend Aage Madsen
President Men's Health Society, Danmark